Kamashramam

- ★ There is a beautiful sacred pond adjacent to the ashram and a holy dip will refresh us.
- ★ This is the place where Manmathan [Lord of Love] was burnt with Lord Shiva's third eye. That's why it is known as "Kamashramam".
- ★ By worshipping SriRam [the icon for winning over lust] in this place, we can win over our five senses, lust and anger.

Kamashramam

- ★ It is called Kameshwar Dham locally.
- ★ This place is also called as “Punyashramam” as many rishis did penance here.
- ★ Somewhere around this region [either in Shringi Ashram or Siddhashram] the famous suprabhatham “Kausalya Supraja Rama” is born. This was sung by Maharishi Viswamitra to Ram & Lakshman

Tadaka Vanam

★ Place where Tadaka was killed by Sri Ram with a single arrow upon the telling of Sage Viswamitra.

★ A big statue of Tadaka was there.

★ Present day known as “Tadak”, it is situated 1km from Ram Rekha ghat

Siddhashramam

- ★ Also known as “Vamanashramam”, this is the ashram of Vamanar
- ★ Siddhashramam means “place where our wishes are fulfilled”
- ★ Also known as “Punyashramam” means the place where one can accrue punyas.
- ★ Place where Viswamitra did his yagna.
- ★ This is located inside the premises of Buxar central Jail!!

Naulakha Mandir

- ★ This is known as Sri Vaikundanatha Perumal temple
- ★ Also known as “Charitravan Baikunth”
- ★ South Indian style temple established by Kanchipuram Sri Ananthacharya swamy

Ram Rekha Ghat Mandir

- ★ It is said that Ram drew a line while crossing Ganges so that asuras couldn't disturb Viswamitra's yagna
- ★ Also known as “Chaitravan Baikunth”
- ★ Ramcharan Paduka is a small mandir dedicated to footprints of Sri Rama
